

Geography: County - Ben Hill County, GA

2015 Population by Race

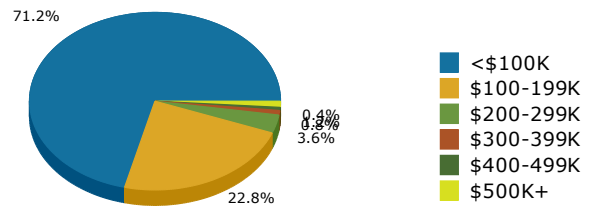

2015 Population by Age

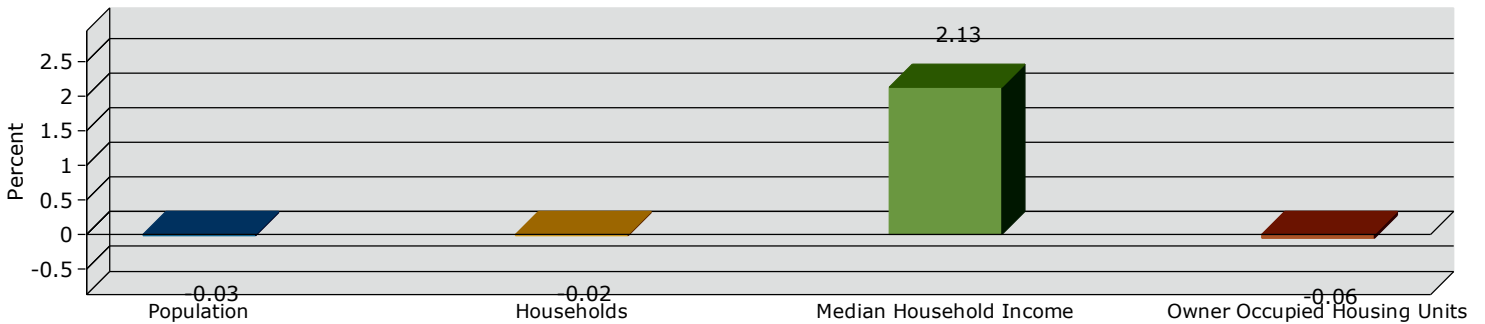

Households

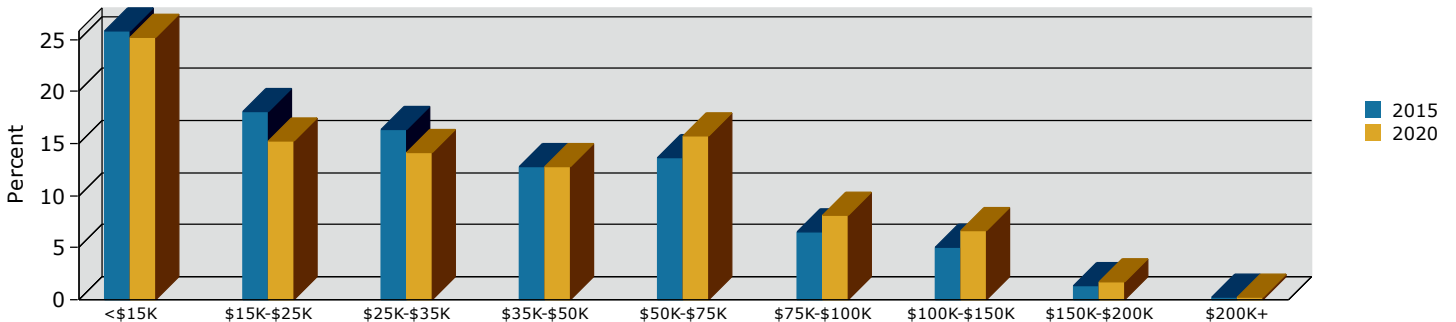

2015 Home Value

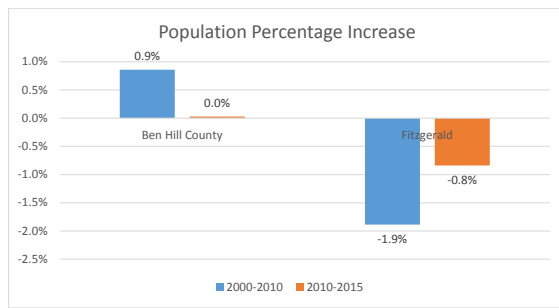

2015-2020 Annual Growth Rate

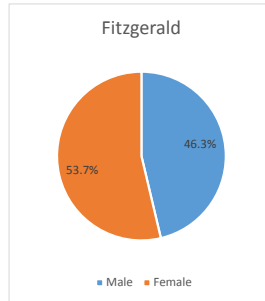

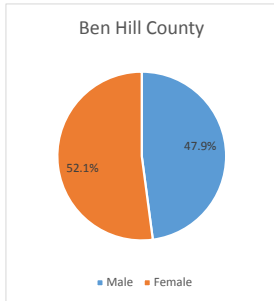

Household Income

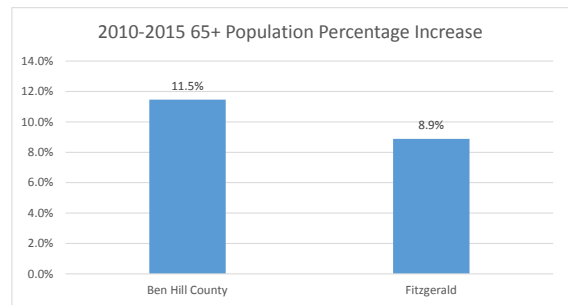

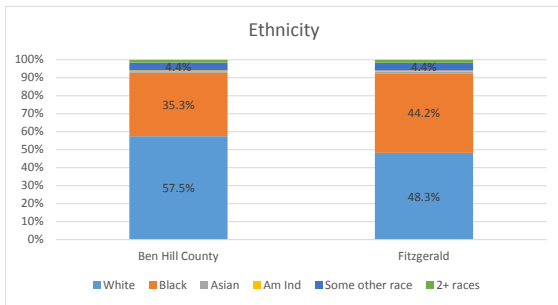

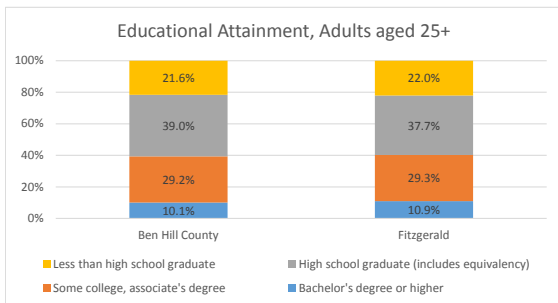

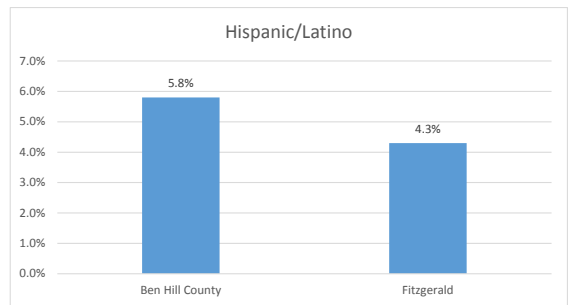

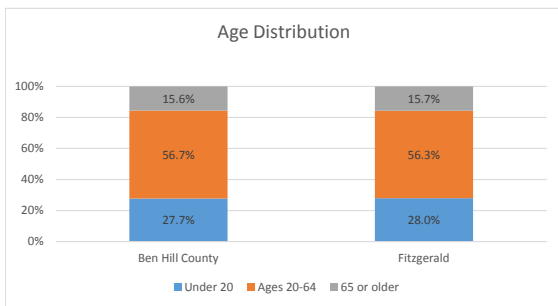

The City of Fitzgerald has lost population over the last 15 years while the County has slightly gained population over the same time period.

Fitzgerald and the county both have more females than males.

The population of seniors is increasing throughout the City and the County.

For adults over 25, educational attainment is slightly higher in the City of Fitzgerald.

